FROM MR. WILLIAM HUNTER.

LONDON 15 Feby 1766

SIR

Among the Gentlemen that honour me with their regard on your River I shall be happy in your Condescension, and as I have the Privilege of not being entirely unknown I take the Liberty of recommending Capt. Rabemen to your Favour — His Ship Charming Sally is at your Command for Freight, and if you dignify in some Share of the Address, my name, I shall have no doubt of rendering a satisfactory accot. as the Price is now good & I give my Friends all the Advantages of the ready money Duties —

I have the honour to be with due Respect Dr Sir Your most Obedt. Servt. WILL HUNTER
